Exhibitor Agreement

Please Read, Sign, and Return with Registration Form

All exhibitors are allowed and encouraged to network and promote their business to the other exhibitors as long as it does not interfere with the running and operation of the solicited exhibitor's booth. NO ONE will be allowed to solicit without a paid booth registration.

Exhibitor, and all parties participating in an exhibit, must wear exhibitor identification badge when networking on the show floor with fellow exhibitors. Badges will be provided by show management.

Exhibitor agrees to the set up and tear down times of the show as stated in the registration information. An Early Tear Down Fee of $50 will be charged to any exhibitor dismantling their booth before 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, March 7. Exhibitor should have their booth staffed at all times during show hours.

Any damage caused to the Honeywell Center floor due to the set up and/or placement of exhibitor's products, etc. is the responsibility of the exhibitor. Appropriate recompense will be determined by the Honeywell Center.

Security is the responsibility of the exhibitor. You may want to cover your displays. The building will be locked after show hours. It will be opened at 8:00 a.m. on Saturday and 10:00 a.m. on Sunday.

No display booth is allowed to extend beyond the perimeters of the space provided or block another exhibitor.

Selling to the public is allowed, however, exhibitor is responsible for their own sales tax.

If you are serving food in your booth, all applicable permits must be displayed.

We do not guarantee the space you request; however, we will try to do our best to accommodate you. Should it become necessary to move you once you have been assigned a booth, we will do our best to place you as close as possible to your requested space.

No booth spaced will be held without a credit card. If planning to pay by check and it is not included, a credit card must be provided to hold your space. Check must be received within 10 days or your card will be charged for the total fees. Make check payable to Wabash County Chamber of Commerce.

No refund will be given after February 5, 2010. The resale of booth space is prohibited.

Wabash County Chamber of Commerce and Expo Committee are not responsible for personal injury or loss of money or property while you are participating in this show. Insurance is the responsibility of the exhibitor.

The Chamber is not responsible for two similar businesses registering. If your company does not allow this, please check the exhibitor listing periodically for updated company information. The Wabash Home & Business Expo allows multiple businesses in the same category to exhibit. As a Chamber member benefit, all members will be given preference and first right of refusal.

Exhibitors may park by the doors on the circle drive for loading and unloading only. Vehicles must be moved as soon as loading/unloading is completed. Exhibitors may use the west parking lot during show hours. Exhibitors only may enter through west gym doors prior to show hours.

The Honeywell Center is a non-smoking facility! Please advise your staff. We appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

I have read and agree to the rules and regulations as outlined above.
