AREA CHAMBERS TO HOST LEGISLATIVE PREVIEW LUNCHEON

Event Sponsors

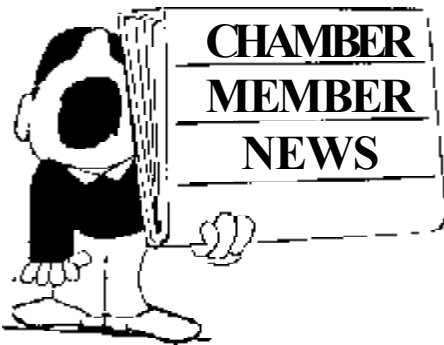

Five area Chambers of Commerce are collaborating on a Legislative Preview Luncheon for regional businesses and the general public. The preview will focus on hot topics for businesses in the upcoming general session. Indiana Chamber's Cam Carter, VP Economic Development and Small Business Policy, will be the featured presenter for the event. Carter has vast experience in business development, marketing and public affairs. Previously, he served in Washington, DC as communications director for U.S. Sen. Richard Lugar (R-Indianapolis) and held senior management positions with Hudson Institute and the international advertising and public relations firm, Publicis. In 1999, he started his own communications consulting and strategic planning firm, Carter Communications Group. Cam became president and CEO of Techpoint in July 2003 after having been an architect of the merger that formed the technology trade group in December 2002. Cam received a bachelor's of science in public affairs from Indiana University. Following Carter's presentation, there will be a question and answer session featuring area legislators representing the region.

Table Sponsor

WILLIAM-LYNN-JAMES, INC.

The event will also include a special presentation by Hoosier Heartland Industrial Corridor board members to Phil Magner, Jr. in recognition of the Wabash Chamber's pioneering efforts related to bringing the infrastructure improvements to the Wabash

Please route this newsletter to the other staff in your business to keep them up-to-date on services, functions and programs available to all employees of our member companies!

HAVE YOU HAD CHANGES OR IMPROVEMENTS IN YOUR BUSINESS? HAVE YOU RECEIVED AN AWARD, REACHED A MILESTONE, OR COMPLETED ADDITIONAL TRAINING? WE WANT TO KNOW. SHARE THESE THINGS WITH YOUR CHAMBER PARTNERS. THEY TOO ENJOY HEARING. CALL, FAX, E-MAIL, OR MAIL NOTES TO THE CHAMBER OFFICE.

The Wabash County YMCA is pleased to announce the ground breaking celebration for its new facility will take place on Thursday, December 6, 2007 at 1:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend this event, which will be held at the future site of the Wabash County YMCA located at 200 Ericson Street, Wabash. All are invited and welcome to attend this historic event. Special guests in attendance at Thursday's ground breaking will include Indiana State Senator Gary "Doc" Dillon, Indiana State Representative William (Bill) Ruppel, Wabash City Mayor Bob Vanlandingham and others that have been instrumental in bringing the YMCA to Wabash.

Wabash Friends' next Leadership Luncheon, "Death by Meeting," will be held on December 6 from Noon to 1 p.m. Targeted for everyone who leads a meeting or is in a meeting, Bryan Orander will share Patrick Lencioni's (Five Dysfunctions of a Team; Five Temptations of a CEO; Four Obsessions of an Extraordinary Executive) ideas on how to transform your meetings to be shorter, more interesting, engaging, and productive.

December 27, 2007 — Family Fun Day at the Wabash County Historical Museum sponsored by Autumn Ridge Rehabilitation Center. Music Americana—featuring an entertaining musical exploration of life in America from AD1700 through 1865. The entire family is invited. Two shows—craft time at 10am with the performance at 11am and then the second craft time is 1pm with the performance at 2pm. Children will make a musical craft to use during the performance. The event also includes a museum hunt for Wabash musical history. The cost for the event is included with the admission fee or free with membership. Please include us in your Christmas break plans. CONGRATULATIONS TO JOANNA MCCANN

by Beth Miller

Joanna Elizabeth McCann, daughter of James and Chris McCann, placed as 1st runner-up in the Indiana State Festivals Association Scholarship Pageant. The pageant offered the participants the opportunity to be judged in Festival Spirit, Evening Gown and On-stage question in addition to a 15 minute interview earlier in the day with the judges. Joanna carried a basket of strawberries and looked ready to enjoy the Very Berry Strawberry Festival for the first section. She then was absolutely stunning in a red evening gown. She answered her on-stage question brilliantly. She was definitely a wonderful ambassador for Wabash at the pageant. All of us from Wabash watching her in the audience (including her mom and dad) were very proud to claim her as one of us.

Joanna McCann and Christy Penner

But Joanna wasn't Wabash's only claim to fame at the pageant. Our own Chris Benson, Nowak's Hallmark, serves on the ISFA Board of Directors and is Chair of the State Pageant. Bev and Jon Vanderpool also serve on the pageant committee. Plunket Video, Roann, taped the pageant and the girls were all provided a t-shirt donated by Sports Unlimited. Nicole Pudis Chase was the emcee and the queen and her court were given flowers provided by LoveBug Floral Boutique. And, last but certainly not least, the 2008 queen was crowned by the 2007 winner Christy Penner from Wabash.

Thanks to all who participated in this event for girls from around the State to have the opportunity for scholarship monies as well as a great learning experience. Wabash, you make us all proud!

CONSUMER DIRECTED HEALTH PLAN RESULTS

This is interesting news considering recent trends in insurance programs. kp

According to the November 2007 Anthem Rapid Update, consumer directed health plan (CDHP) offerings are showing intended results. According to survey findings by BCBSA, members enrolled in these plans are “more engaged in wellness programs and are more likely to plan and save for healthcare expenses than those in traditional healthcare coverage.” Also, “members eligible for health savings accounts (HSAs) were 17 percent more likely to participate in an exercise program than those enrolled in non-CDHP products. These same members were also more likely to participate in a smoking cessation program (20 percent vs. 6 percent), a stress management program (22 percent vs. 8 percent), and nutrition and diet programs (27 percent vs. 12 percent). Furthermore, HSA-eligible members in these programs were more likely to see positive results.”

ROKITA SPEARHEADS PHONE CARDS COLLECTION FOR INJURED MILITARY TROOPS

While the task of picking up a phone and calling a loved one in the U.S. is easy, the act becomes a bit more complicated when you're overseas. And in the military. And in a hospital.

This summer, Secretary of State Todd Rokita visited Landstuhl Regional Medical Center, a military casualty hospital operated by the U.S. European Military Command. The facility is also a primary medical evacuation destination for U.S. troops participating in Iraq and Afghanistan military operations. When told that international calling charges are not covered and injured troops were unable to contact home, he was determined to help meet this small but important need.

Rokita and his office are collecting 60 to 120 minute domestic prepaid telephone cards to be sent to wounded troops stationed overseas. Phone cards can be purchased at local retailers. Please mail or deliver the cards to: Military Phone Card Program, c/o Indiana Secretary of State Todd Rokita, 201 Statehouse, Indianapolis, IN 46204. Rokita will forward the collection starting December 19 so the soldiers can have the cards in time to call their loved ones over the holidays.

Additional information can be obtained by calling 312-232-6531 or by visiting www.in.gov/sos/desk/PhoneCards.html.

BUSINESS BEFORE HOURS

The next Business Before Hours will be December 12, 7:00 a.m., at the Honeywell Center, 275 W. Market St., Wabash.

Business Sponsors are Wabash MPI/Carver, Visionary Computers, Atlas Building Services, Junior Achievement and White's Family & Residential Services. The emcee will be Celia Briggs, Wabash City Schools. To make reservations call the Chamber at 260.563.1168, email beth@wabashchamber.org or visit our web site at www.wabashchamber.org.

FROM THE LIBRARY

by Ware W. Wimberly, Director

Are you looking to expand or start a new business? With the global economy, businesses can now take all kinds of shapes whether traditional, home based, online, etc. Whatever the type of business, starting or expanding one is a challenging matter. If a company, group, or individual is interested, the Wabash Carnegie Public Library might have resources that could be of assistance. If the Wabash Carnegie Public Library or I can be of assistance to you, please let me know. In the following paragraphs, I will highlight some resources held at the Library.

PRINT RESOURCES:

Holden, Greg. Starting an Online Business for Dummies. Hoboken, NJ: Wiley Publishing, Inc., 5th edition, 2007.

This book (part of the well-known For Dummies Book Series for Beginners collection) provides a comprehensive guide to establishing and promoting a successful online business.

Bolles, Richard Nelson. What Color is Your Parachute?: a practical manual for job-hunters and career-changers: 2008 edition. Berkeley, CA: Ten Speed Press, 2007

Although this book focuses primarily on choosing a career, it does have a section focused on How to Start Your Own Business. It provides valuable information on how to start one's own business and useful online resources.

How to Start a Business in Indiana. Madison, WI: Entrepreneur Press, 2nd edition, 2007. * Includes CD-ROM

From the writers of Entrepreneur Magazine, this book helps one navigate effectively through the process of establishing a business in the State of Indiana. With all of the regulations and possible red tape involved, this resource assists one in avoiding pitfalls.

HOME & BUSINESS EXPO 2008

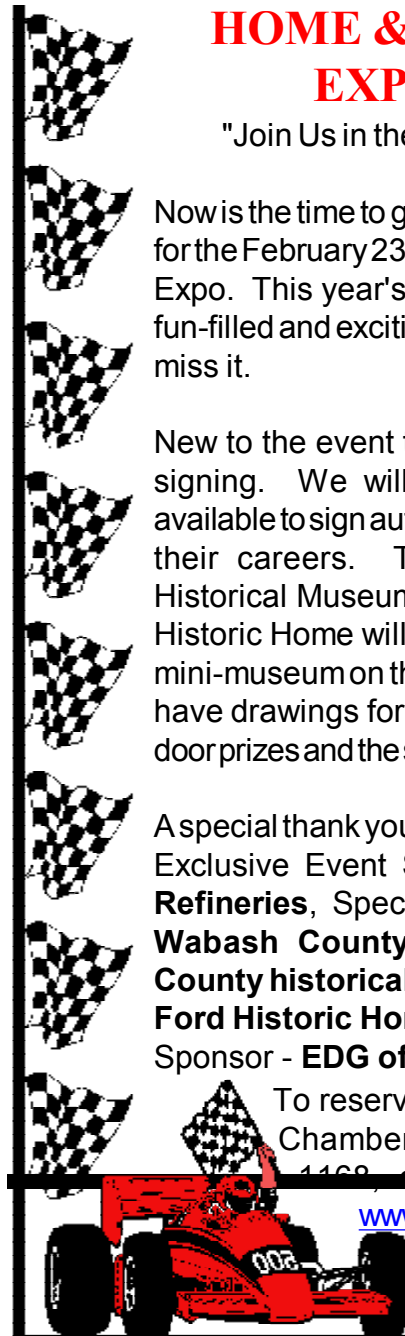

"Join Us in the Winners Circle"

Now is the time to get your booth reserved for the February 23 & 24 Home & Business Expo. This year's event promises to be fun-filled and exciting so you won't want to miss it.

New to the event this year is autograph signing. We will have sports figures available to sign autographs and talk about their careers. The Wabash County Historical Museum and Dr. James Ford Historic Home will once again provide a mini-museum on the Gym Stage. We will have drawings for a Grand Prize, hourly door prizes and the silent auction will return.

A special thank you goes to our sponsors. Exclusive Event Sponsor - Poet Bio-Refineries, Special Event Sponsors - Wabash County Hospital, Wabash County historical Museum, Dr. James Ford Historic Home, and Vendor Night Sponsor - EDG of Wabash County.

To reserve your space, call the Chamber office at 260-563-1168, or register online at www.wabashchamber.org.

BUSINESS AFTER HOURS

The next Business After Hours is scheduled for January 7. The sponsor will be the Dr. James Ford Historic Home. Please plan to visit their 177 West Hill Street location between 5:00 and 7:00 p.m. Don't miss this opportunity to tour this unique facility and network with their staff and other business people.

Business After Hours has been a very popular event. Those businesses who have sponsored a BAH have been very pleased with the number of visitors to their facilities. If you would like to sponsor a BAH, please call the Chamber office, 260.563.1168. We are now booking for 2009.
